Outlook:

Tyrone Marshall is a strong and very athletic player that has both size and speed, which he uses on both defense and offense. On defense Marshall has no problem switching from post player to guard due to long arms that challenge shots in the air and disrupts players while dribbling. Marshall has a great shot range from the mid range to the three-point line. Great face up player that can finish at the rim. Passes well of rebounds. Can play stretch forward.
